

Commercial General Liability Coverage

This document is to outline the insurance amendment to include Online Training during the Covid-19 crisis. The coverage outlined below is currently valid through July 2020. This will be extended if needed. Please see the following terms and conditions for full details.

BCSSA member clubs are permitted to conduct online classes in cardio, flexibility, strength & conditioning under the following restrictions:

1. All instruction is to be carried out by a registered BCSSA coach. Any other types of instructors are not covered for online training.
2. All individuals participating in the training must be registered as members of a BCSSA member club for the 2020 summer season and be recorded as participating by the coach leader.
3. Participants / Guardians of minor children participating must agree to the BCSSA Online waiver linked HERE. As this is an amendment to any previous training environments, therefore a new disclaimer is required.
4. Pre-recorded videos are not the preferred method of delivering online training. All training should be delivered in real-time.
5. BCSSA Clubs must advise BCSSA office in writing (online form here) before the class and include the following information:
 - a. Date(s) and Time(s) of the course
 - b. Instructor/coach name and their remote location
 - c. Name of 2nd Instructor/coach that will assist (“Rule of 2”)
 - d. Class Content (activities to be conducted)
 - e. Number of participants (all of which should be registered with BCSSA before the start of the session)
 - f. Participants must also follow the Provincial Physical Distancing Guidelines.
 - g. All accidents and injuries are to be documented in writing and submitted to BCSSA using the BCSSA Accident form.
 - h. Participants / Guardians of minor children participating must have acknowledged a disclaimer to abide by the BCSSA Code of Conduct.
